

FOUR WINDS SKI AND SOCIAL CLUB

SEPT 2014

FROM THE PREZ

I was going to write about important stuff this month – the coming ski trip calendar, the social events on tap – but I'll let the rest of the newsletter deal with all that. The Little League World Series came on TV, and I've been captivated by the ESPN broadcast. Media packaging aside, the authenticity of the 11- to 13-year old boys and one amazing girl has lifted this annual event from relative obscurity to center stage.

A million years ago, I played Little League baseball but my teams could not have challenged these kids. They are focused, athletic and skillful players yet they are still unpolished enough to relate to.

Most of the hype surrounds 5'4" Mo'ne Davis, the female star of the Philadelphia team. She is superbly athletic, intelligent, the best pitcher on her team, she has a plan for her future and, despite all the attention, she seems to remain humble and more focused on her team's success than her own. She has moxie and a remarkable calmness even though she has been put on the cover of Sports Illustrated magazine. Big Leaguers take note ... this is the way we want our sports heroes to act!

Jackie Robinson West, the Little League team from the south side of Chicago, has excited the Windy City in a year when both the Cubs and the White Sox are pathetic. For a short time we are talking about a cohesive group of young boys, coached by their fathers, rather than rampant gang violence and random shootings. I saw one of the boys from the Chicago team "high five" an opposing player to congratulate him on a home run he just hit. I heard one player from the Chicago team apologize to the manager from the New England team because the Chicago player thought he got too excited about a homer he had just hit. Amazing!

1st Thursday of the Month

This year's annual Little League World Series has struck a national nerve. 34,000 people were in attendance to watch Mo'ne Davis pitch against a team from Las Vegas. The television ratings for that game were seven times that of the ESPN broadcast of the first-place LA Dodgers and the Boston Red Sox on the same night.

The baseball in the Little League is not as artistic as the Big Leagues but the energy, passion and uninhibited fun makes up for it. The kids really care. They cry after losses. Chubby kids with glasses hit home runs. Shrimpy kids make terrific plays in the outfield. Coaches really coach and comfort devastated young boys who have just lost a game or made a bad play.

I'm a sucker for a good story. I understand that a Mo'ne Davis autographed baseball is going for $500 on eBay. And here's the best part ... she couldn't care less!!

I promise to try to control myself next month.

As always, I am available to anyone on matters related to the Club. I can be reached on my cell (708-212-3505) or via e-mail.

Recap: Four Winds Geneseo Camping Trip

August 8-10, 2014

Friday, August 8, 2014 was drive day. In about 2 ½ hours, Four Winders were at Geneseo Campgrounds. Nice, clean, and quiet until the Four Winds group arrived throughout afternoon. The set up was great: 3 cabins in a row (the cabins were rustic, really rustic: queen bed and one set of bunk beds. No bathroom or kitchen area. Had to bring you own linens, towels. The bath and toilets were approx. 150 feet from the cabins, very clean.) The R.V. Campers were right across the road and our one tent camping family approx. 150 feet to the west of the group on a nice grass spot. A campfire started around 6:00 p.m. at a small area by the cabins. At the campfire, we talked, roasted marshmallows and made delicious campfire pies (VERY good. Thank you Ken and Fran!) To bed around 11 pm..

Saturday: a club breakfast was served at 8:30 a.m.: French toast, Canadian bacon, orange juice, coffee, milk, fruit, and sweet rolls.

At this time the decision was to go west on the Hennepin canal trail and end up at the Lavender Crest winery for lunch, about 12 miles. At 10:00 a.m. all were ready for the bike ride. The great 13 (that how many) started out. At about 4 miles, Judy S. had enough and turned back; at about 6 miles, three more turn back (Margaret, son and Ken P.). Up the road a bit farther, the trail turned to a sand path and all had a time with that. At about 7 miles, Kathleen S. got a flat tire, so a call went to Judy S. to pick up Kathleen and her bike. They drove to the winery and were the first to arrive. The rest continued to bike. Rich S. wasn't doing badly on the trail, but when all switched to the road, it was up and down. At 11 miles, Rich was rescued by Margaret and her son going to the winery for lunch.

Got a long table, and all sat down and ordered lunch. After lunch, came the wine tasting. Some good stuff. When done, 5 went back by car, 3 drove and 5 bikers. Mary T. let Kathleen use her bike to bike with the group. All back safely, about 5:30 / 6:00 p.m. Started the grill fires and started talking food. Pot luck dinner was assembled. All put something on the table and cook their own entrée. Thank to Tom L., Lance T. and Ron H. for making the grill fires. After eating, all sat around the fire and talked about the day we had with the wine in hand.

Sunday: a club breakfast was served at 9 a.m.: Scrambled eggs, sausage, Margaret's hash browns, coffee, milk, sweet rolls, fruit. After clean up, the group decided to do their own thing. A few hung around and relaxed at camp. Some went out bike riding again, going east this time (Kathleen got her bike fixed). Another group went kayaking. Water lilies were in bloom.

Back at camp, and after lunch, all but the R.V. campers were packed up for the drive home. Lance T. was in great shape; he must have biked about 75 miles plus on this weekend. Good going Lance. By 3 p.m., all but 4 were at the campgrounds. The 4 stayed to see the John Deere attraction the next day.

All said they had a good time. May try again next year and do the Mississippi River trail!.

Thanks again to all,

-Rich Stasch, Trip Leader

CMSC Picnic - August 16, 2014

At Norge Ski Jump

This year's Picnic turned out to be picture perfect: low 80s & lots of Sun!!

We had 21 clubs participate, with 120 people in attendance.

The format this year was a little different. We started with a D.J. arriving early & playing music for the occasion. The music provided a very positive & resonating atmosphere for the day's events. The Norge team expressed it was the first time jumping with music.

The Norge jumpers put on a spectacular show as usual!! Norge has mostly young flyers, 5- to 13-years old being the norm & 38 being legendary. They flew from the 25, 40 & the 70 Meter jumps & made it look easy.

The jumping was early this year. This provided some time for us to climb the 70 meter jump & enjoy the view. Well worth the effort.

The grills were fired up & a team of experts (Ron, Lance, Mary & Patrick (junior) from The Four Winds Ski Club. & ED from The Dulan Ski Club) attended to the food.

GREAT JOB! I THANK YOU & THE MANY APPETITES IN ATTENDANCE THANK YOU!!

Kirby & his wife from the Kirby Ski Club helped with the games. It was tough pulling people from their food comas, but once they were in it, they wanted to win it.

The music played into the night. We then headed for the Campfire to share our most memorable slopeside stories. A fabulous time was had by all!!

See You Next Year!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
